OUTSTANDING INNOVATION OF THE YEAR

The CMI Outstanding Innovation of the Year award is presented to a CMI partner who has demonstrated remarkable innovation in the design and delivery of their Management & Leadership programmes, with proven, significant impact on learner outcomes.

CRITERIA

The winner will have demonstrated outstanding innovation in management and leadership programme design and delivery. This could relate to curriculum, employer engagement, using technology, progression pathways and links to professional recognition.

This award is particularly pertinent in a year of unforeseen and unprecedented change which has seen all of CMIs partners demonstrate agility, flexibility and adaptability in everything that they do and will do in the future.

In particular they will have:

- provided evidence, that has taken place within the last 12-18 months, of the outstanding impact that this innovation has had on learner outcomes, as well as the organisation itself
- set out how the partnership with CMI has supported or enhanced this innovation
- provided evidence of the immediate impact of this innovation, and set out how this innovation will improve the organisations sustainability
