AWARD DESCRIPTION

CMI's International Partners are a crucial part of CMI's community. The International HE of the Year award celebrates the fantastic work of CMI's partners around the world, and their commitment to our vision to create better led and managed organisations.

All around the world, higher education (HE) institutions equip students and learners with the skills they need to flourish in a changing global economy. The CMI International HE Partner of the Year award celebrates HE institutions outside of the UK that can demonstrate positive impacts on student experience, professional development and employability as a result of their partnership with CMI. For partners within the UK, please see CMI's HE Partner of the Year Award.
