
Speaker Biographies

Sue Wright CMgr MCMI, Senior EPA Engagement Manager, Chartered Management Institute

Sue has been working at CMI for 7 years. She has extensive experience in the service, manufacturing and educational sectors. She had a 14 year career within Further Education as a Director of Employer Liaison & Partnerships, managing Franchise, Distance Learning and International Studies as well as lecturing in management and business administration and managing a £1million + Apprenticeship programme. As Director of Employer Liaison & Partnerships Sue had responsibility for liaison with employers to determine staff training needs and providing training solutions. She has had 7 years working for two awarding organisations, writing qualifications and assessment materials, providing curriculum support and funding advice and guidance. Before working in FE, Sue acquired broad-ranging business experience in positions such as Marketing and Sales Manager, Commercial Manager for a football club and as a recruitment consultant.

Sean Jagger CMgr MCMI, EPA Engagement Manager, Chartered Management Institute

Sean is a new addition to the EPA Team having recently joined us from the IAA Team within CMI. Sean is dynamic and results-driven education & training professional and leadership & management specialist with over 25 years of experience. He has a proven track record in developing and delivering innovative, accredited curriculum solutions for diverse audiences, excelling in apprenticeship assessment, curriculum design, staff development, and quality assurance while also advocating for the use of innovation in Digital & Blended Learning. His expertise spans curriculum design & validation, apprenticeship delivery, quality assurance & compliance.