

---

Generations at work: Shared values, new perspectives

Tuesday 4th November 2025

Speaker Biographies

Matt Platt CMgr FCFMI, Event Lead, CMI South East Regional Board

An accomplished senior leader specialising in the delivery of change within the Technology space for the past 17 years, Matt has been managing and leading teams for over a decade. Matt has recently moved into the Interim Management area, working to deliver transformational change on behalf of clients primarily in the Private Equity sector.

Recently graduating from Henley Business School with an MBA run as a Level 7 apprenticeship in partnership with the CMI, and therefore now also a Chartered Manager, Matt has a deep appreciation for the support of developing managers and leaders and has derived great satisfaction from supporting peers and team members in turn over the years and seeing their journeys unfold.

Rebekah Patterson fCMgr, Secretary, CMI South East Regional Board

Rebekah Patterson BA (Hons) is a National Management Trainee on the Local Government Graduate Programme. As part of her work on the scheme, she is undertaking a Level 7 qualification in Strategic Leadership and Management, awarded by CMI.

After graduating from the University of Sheffield in July 2023 with a BA (Hons) degree in Politics and Sociology, Rebekah has been undertaking leadership and management opportunities within her role as a National Management Trainee, with the ambition to progress in her career in the public sector. By undertaking her Level 7 qualification in partnership with CMI, she has a great appreciation for supporting the development of managers.

Rebekah aspires to bring value to the work she does and is passionate about balancing strategic oversight with operational detail to enhance experience and outcomes.

---

Tim Brann, Creative Lead and Co-Founder, Oxygen

Tim is Creative Lead and Co-Founder of Oxygen, a curated team of creatives and strategists, working with passionate brands that are shaping the future for the better. Having started his career designing consumer products, his career transitioned from self employment to a full time role establishing Oxygen with his Co-Founders. He has since worked on a diverse range of projects from leading brand refresh projects for charities, sustainable and user-friendly website re-designs for B Corps to large internal communication projects for global NGOs. Tim is also a Trustee of the charity Board Racial Diversity UK.

Stuart Campbell CMgr FCMI, Fundraising & Marketing Director, Global

Stuart is a senior creative and strategic leader with extensive experience across broadcasting, fundraising and marketing. As Fundraising & Marketing Director at the in-house charity of Global, the media and entertainment company, Stuart oversees national campaigns on radio, digital and live events. His fundraising initiatives range from high-profile presenter challenges to grassroots community engagement, running across Global's well-known radio stations, including Heart, Capital, Classic FM, LBC and Smooth. Before moving into the charity sector, Stuart held senior editorial and commercial roles, creating content for diverse audiences and partners.

Stuart was recently awarded CMI Fellow status after studying with Imperial College Business School and Cordel. A season ticket holder, he can be found at Fratton Park most weekends cheering on Portsmouth FC.